

The Daily Register-Ritual And How To Bust It.

By Ninja Bambi (May 2014)

We all know about the legal name fraud via the Birth Certificate Registration
process.

This regis-ster pro-cess
results in a spiritual
contract which allows others
to rule over our divine
feminine creative essence,
whilst all use of that
registered, legal name
results in a life of
voluntary, if ignorant,

Slavery!

Any contract based in fraud, is null and void, once the fraud is revealed.

And it has been revealed!

HOWEVER, not everyone is fully aware of all of this.

For those who are aware, and still sending their children into the school systems, there is the matter of the forgotten, daily, REGISTER / Regis-Ster!

YES!

We forgot, didn't we?
We forgot all about that
morning and afternoon
ritual when the teacher
reads the names, out loud,
from the CLASS REGISTER,
with eyes down, waiting for
verbal responses from each child to confirm their presence

AND, more importantly,
agree to being that
registered, legal, name!

No more!

Time to teach your children
they are NOT a legal name.

And teach them to stop
answering, to stop
contracting, in-voice, when
the teacher calls that legal
name from the class
register.

No more automatic replies
of, 'Here, Miss.'
or 'Present, Sir'.

No more daily, re-inforced,
contracts!

Let the children sit, silent,

Smiling. Let their silence force the teacher to look-up and see them, and make eye-contact with them.

At first, the teachers will be confused. Silence usually means absence.

So, no doubt the teacher will ask them,

"I just called your name, why didn't you respond?"

Then the golden moment of truth:

"That is not me. The legal name you seek is written in that register of yours!"

Arm your children with any amount of printed material to hand to their teacher to further explain their new position.

For example,

'Babylon Is Fallen'

'The Long And The Short Of It'

'I Who Shall Not Be Legally Named', etc.,

all by Kate of Gaia.*

This will, ultimately, force teachers to acknowledge the presence of their students

by

WITNESSING

with the
EVIDENCE
of their own
EYES
those
LIVING BEINGS
who are in attendance.

Breaking the earliest spells
and contracts within the current
education or better termed indoctrination system can be easily achieved.

No more ritual, fictional,
system-registered-legal-

name-calling in class!

AS all children learn what is really going on, their choices and voices will effect ever-greater change in the school system, which will, by default, cease to exist entirely...

OR...

it will morph into a consenting group of beings who simply wish to come together to share ideas and learn, whatever they wish to learn, in any given moment of NOW.

Curriculums will cease to exist.

Teachers will become something like
'Supportive-assistants'.

School buildings will become
gathering-spaces for all.

No Legal Names.

No Contracts.

Just Fun.
